Friday The 13th

It's Tomorrow, But Isn't All Bad

As if the bad weather isn't enough, some of a superstition's nature must put up with Friday the 13th tomorrow.

If you fear the number 13, you are a triskaidekaphobic, a person suspicious of the number 13. Such phobia is defined in the dictionary as an obsessing morbid fear or dread. If Friday the 13th is a phobia with you, there are millions of Americans like you.

It is estimated that every time one of these "unlucky" dates rolls around, $20 million goes down the drain in lost time on the job and other related ways.

HOW IT came about isn't clear, though some trace the superstition to the last days Christ spent on earth.

There were 13 persons at the Last Supper" and Christ's crucifixion was on Friday, the Bible tells us. Ever since, it seems, the day Friday and number 13 have been linked together and considered unlucky.

How widespread the superstition has become and how it has influenced even businessmen and industrialists is reflected in some of our multi-story buildings.

Mayor Meets Highway Aides

Industry Asks State Help In Five Traffic Problems

Five traffic problems confronting Industry Borough have been laid before the Pennsylvania Department of Highways.

Mayor Steve Suchanec outlined the matters during a meeting Wednesday with District 11 officials at the Parkway Center in Greentree. Present were Henry Harrold, secretary of the department, and J. P. Ambler, district engineer.

The mayor said he was assured that the needed repairs will be considered and placed under the six-year road program.

Suchanec reported he asked for the widening of TR 68 and LR 242, which runs through the center of the borough, pointing out the road is too narrow for the heavy traffic and is a hazard for pedestrians walking on the berm.

It is the main route leading to Route 18 and the turnpike and since the opening of the Shippingport Bridge considerable traffic has been rerouted from West Virginia and Ohio.

The repair will call for widening the road and resurfacing it for 2.2 miles through the borough.

Another danger spot pointed out by the mayor was LR 04013 which intersects Route 68 near Mickey's Tavern.

Boning Up For Survival

No one is happy about draft deferment examinations. The only redeeming feature of the exams is that they are one way of doing something no one likes to do.

Until someone comes up with a demonstrably better way, Selective Service will muddle through, piling unfairness on unfairness.

The original Selective Service System was based on a lottery. Draftees were chosen by chance. This was not perfect either, but when masses of military manpower had to be assembled quickly it worked.

Its weakness was the "special case" that escaped military duty because of reclassification. "Special cases" ranged from breadwinners for dependent families to suddenly indispensable employees who never had realized their importance to employers who weren't paying them living wages.

The aim and purpose of Selective Service will be thwarted if student deferments continue indefinitely. The idea of the draft was to spread the burden of military service and the risk of death.

All Our Hearts Go Out

In the wake of the blood bath in the heart of Saigon, when U.S. military policemen were shooting at other military policemen and Vietnamese civilians were among those being killed and wounded in the crossfire, an American spokesman said, "Our hearts go out to the innocent victims of the incident."

All our hearts go out to all the innocent victims in Viet Nam. Apparently six Vietnamese were killed, 21 were wounded and eight Americans were hurt in this comic opera tragedy.

Our hearts go out to the Americans as well as the Vietnamese. They, too, have been caught in a crossfire of international power politics that robs them of security and dignity.

Currently in Washington, top officials of the U.S. government are being given direct information by U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, home from Saigon to make a report. Though it never has been entirely clear what Ambassador Lodge thinks about U.S. involve-

The effect of student deferments is to concentrate the burden and risk on non-college-attending men and those who attend and for some reason cannot score high enough to evade the draft.

Young men who can stay in school, for whatever reason and by whatever means, are draft-immune unless they happen to be studying medicine. In that case, they are more draft-vulnerable than any other group.

Educators know that the key element missing in education is motivation. Students lack the will to succeed that made it possible for their less-privileged ancestors to acquire learning under what now would be considered insuperable handicaps.

Motivation is back. Boning up for survival now is a student preoccupation. Freshmen not in the upper half of their class, sophomores not in the upper two-third and others not in the upper three-fourths have one more chance of deferment—a score of 70 on the draft deferment tests on May 14, May 21 and June 3.

A Senator Faces Up To It

As a diversion from discussion about the military muddle in South Viet Nam, auto safety has been as good a topic as any.

It has had the merit of reminding the American public that someone besides Secretary of Defense McNamara is capable of computerized goofos. Mr. McNamara, formerly of Ford Motor Co., undoubtedly remembers the Edsel.

And it did catch the "auto-matons" who are still in the industry off guard. Their frantic attempts to come roundabout in a hurry to face their government critics were something to see, especially General Motors when it tried to catch that young author-critic off guard.

But now the about-face has been accomplished. The automakers are taking care of themselves public relations-wise as they would say in the public relations industry. They have appeared to be willing to do everything the all-seeing, all knowing guardians of the public welfare in Washington may ask them to do.

Constitutional Issue

A hot constitutional issue was cracked open by a Long Island Rail Road strike over who has the right to take a nippy-nip at lunch.

A railroad unionist attended an executive luncheon and observed big shots quaffing relaxation sauce. The unionist remembered a couple of trainmen had been punished because they were seen having a beer with pizza pie one day at lunch.

He claims Rule G of the railroad's official rules book says no employee of the company shall take a nip during working hours and the executives were nipping while on duty.

Management claims the rule applies only to employees responsible for running trains. This comes dangerously close to admitting that Long Island Rail Road management isn't responsible for running anything, a point of view that might strike objective observers as reasonable.

But aside from that, the constitutional issue opened up by the argument, which already has been highlighted by a strike that gave 15,000 commuters something to talk about, may be tough.

Constitutional issue?

Not with a capital C, but with a view to the constitution of industrial and business enterprise in the United States.

The way things have been constituted, management was one thing and the hired help another and if they met, which was rarely, they said hello and went separate ways.

The way things are now, however, a transition is going on and the hired help want to discuss things at length and in detail. The difference between keeping a clear head to operate a train and a clear head to operate a railroad is the kind of thing now being discussed.

Management, itself, is coming to be more and more like hired help and less and less like the princes of privilege who once strode like giants on the earth.

Sometimes the only difference is that managers work harder and are paid to be on the ball every waking hour, instead of ringing out at the end of a shift.

But the idea that management is working for a living has filtered down to the hired help and is hastening the democratization of industrial and business society. Everybody is in the same boat, some sitting in front, some in back, some amidships. But it's row, row, row, or down the river we will go, go, go—ho, ho, ho.

Rule G may never have been meant to apply to executives who do not operate trains but maybe there should be a Rule G-1 for executives who operate railroads, or whatever else they are managing.

It's a constitutional issue. A generation ago,

This is the well-known mousetrap play. By seeming to give in, the auto industry will hope to catch the attackers off guard with a morale-crushing sideswipe.

In the meantime, the chief gadfly, Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn., has made a sensational statement about the whole issue. "I would say the American car, on the whole, is the safest car in the world" was his answer to a question about comparative safety.

Doesn't that pretty well sum up the whole diversionary question of safety? No one ever claimed American cars were perfect. But aren't they closer to perfect in respect to safety than any other cars?

It's an old American custom to compare things with standards never achieved on earth, but in the case of automobiles it's even sillier than it is in politics.

By Truman Twill

it never would have been raised. Many things can change in a generation.

How a man washes down his lunch relative to the way some other man does it is one of them. Or isn't there anything to those stories about whooper-uppers who drink their lunch and get back to the office just in time to say goodnight to the hired help?

Purely Personal

Learning to think is a tough job. I do not hold it against college students for not being able to think better than their parents while the students are still in the apprentice stage.

It has been a cruel shock to discover Americans are hated as much in some parts of the world as other hateful people are hated—so cruel that most of us cannot believe that to know us is not to love us.

One of the best quips about NATO has been made by Peter Ustinov, an actor: "I have for a long time called NATO six nations in search of an enemy. Now they've come up with France."

A neat legal question is in the making, apropos of the likelihood that a workable plastic heart will be developed. What happens to state laws that say a human being is legally dead when his heart stops beating? Whose heart?

It's all in getting used to it. The first time our side used tear gas in Viet Nam, it was a three-day sensation. Now it has been used again and no one pays attention. One wonders what comes next. Mustard gas?

A report to New York Mayor Lindsay claims his city has the worst polluted air of any city in the United States. This strikes us as a perverse point of pride, the same as if a city claimed it had the lowest scum level. I doubt if New York City air is THAT polluted.

I am suddenly attracted by the idea of painting machinery yellow, like the color of the best-known brand of earth-moving machinery. Formerly, I thought only red would be suitable. Now if I just had some machinery . . .

I have been trying to remember a few French words, anticipating a forthcoming visit to Montreal, and about the best I can do is hash over in my mind such inanities as "un grand piece de frangais."

Anti-War Bloc Invades Union

By Victor Riesel

A militant labor leader, who has accused the U.S. of fighting a "dirty war which is poisoning us," has been pushing a whirlwind campaign to organize a powerful union opposed to American politics in Southeast Asia.

It's a daring move. For, if successful, the new bloc could mobilize thousands in every great city. It's the kind of political venture with which its leader, David Livingston, has long been identified.

Though his name hardly is a byword in the land, in informed labor circles he is synonymous with mass, militant, direct labor action and perpetual left-wing stormy petrelism on all issues since he helped launch the Bring the Boys Back Home Movement at the end of the last big war.

Now he wants to end this one — fast. He has gathered around him a bloc of other militants in labor who met Tuesday, May 3, and launched the Trade Union Division of SANE.

WITH MR. LIVINGSTON, who is president of District 65 of the Wholesale and Retail International, are leaders of unions with several hundred thousand members in the hotel, baking, auto, fur, jewelry, hospital, transit, men's clothing, state county and municipal, oil chemical atomic and furniture fields.

With them before the formal launching in an auditorium near the United Nations Plaza was lanky Al Shanker president of the United Federation of Teachers.

After some phone conversations with Mr. Livingston, Mr. Shanker, leader of some 40,000 New York City school teachers, quit the group. His letter to Mr. Livingston, written after he saw the "call" dispatched by the organizing group to hundreds of union chiefs, speaks quite succinctly for itself:

"Dear Dave: As I indicated to you in an earlier phone call, I did not want to speak out against our government policy in Viet Nam." Mr. Shanker wrote on April 22.

"My personal position and that of the national American Federation of Teachers is to support President Johnson. However, I did agree that it would be a good idea to have a Trade Union Division of SANE, and I did agree to act as a sponsor for a founding meeting.

"Unfortunately, the invitation that went out, while worded somewhat mildly, is also misleading.

"It talks about the fact that many have spoken out on Viet Nam and goes on to say that 'one group of Americans conspicuous by their absence from the national dialogue has been organized labor.' I do not think this is so.

"The AFL-CIO and many unions have spoken out in support of the government's policy.

"Thus there can be no other interpretation of this statement than that it is the intention to organize a group to speak out against the government's policy in Viet Nam, something which I did not intend to do and do not intend to do.

"Also, after some thought, I really do not think it is a good idea to have a trade union branch of SANE since I don't think that unionists have any special interest in the problems of war and peace. We all face this issue as citizens rather than unionists.

"I think . . . it would be best . . . to remove my name from future participation."

THE SANE CALL, signed by 16 fairly influential labor leaders, charged that "we intend to rectify" the "condition" — meaning the alleged failure of American labor to speak out.

Many believe this to be a strange charge, indeed. Mr. Livingston, an avid reader of labor resolutions, should have known that the AFL-CIO national convention said after careful consideration of the Viet Nam conflict:

"The Communists are waging a war of conquest, a war for the annexation of South Viet Nam by Ho Chi Minh's regime. This war is not an isolated local conflict. It is an integral phase of the Communist drive for dominating the world . . .

"In this realization, the American people fully support President Johnson's policy in Viet Nam. Our convention pledges unstirring support by the AFL-CIO of all measures the administration might deem necessary to halt Communist aggression and secure a just and lasting peace."

THIS WAS REAFFIRMED by the executive council two months later.

It's therefore as obvious as the stone face on the Sphinx that Mr. Livingston and his militant bloc are ignoring the voice of some 13 million unionists. It's obvious that Mr. Livingston and his group are breaking with their national leadership in the first mass schism on the labor front.

It's a daring move. It will be countered. There will be noise on the nation's streets.

A formidable left wing has surfaced in the labor movement — and, of course, at this crucial moment in the nation's history.

Could Be Worse

Complaining about the unseasonable weather? Forget it!

Here's what the residents of Illinois had to go through back in 1846, according to the following clipping from the "State Register" supplied by a local resident:

"The year of 1846 was without a summer. The weather was so cold that ice was frozen every day in June . . . June 17 was the memorable date, as a big snow fell, up to 10 inches, and many people were frozen to death . . . July and August were colder than June . . . and the entire summer was as bleak and dreary as November."

Things aren't so bad after all, are they?

Injustices

By David Lawrence

Civil Rights Policies Questioned

Americans pride themselves on the fact that, whenever anyone is accused of wrongdoing, he is entitled to his day in court, but Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-NC finds that no such privileges have been given public school boards, hospitals and other institutions and that states, cities and counties can be suddenly deprived of public funds on mere suspicion and without a trial.

Mr. Ervin was for several years a justice of the Supreme Court of his state, and is at present chairman of a Senate subcommittee on constitutional rights. He declares that the Civil Rights Act of 1964 needs clarification, because it now is being interpreted as permitting federal funds to be withheld from "health, education and welfare programs" without legal proceedings.

Mr. Ervin's amendment would stipulate instead that "no funds can be withheld under any federal program until a constitutional or statutory violation has been committed by the recipient of the benefits of such programs" and that "such violation must be established by substantial evidence."

Mr. Ervin cites three examples in his own state. He says that in one educational project in Charlotte, in which 1,400 Negroes and 170 whites in a total of 91 classes were being taught to read and write, threat of termination was issued by the U.S. Office of Economic Opportunity "because of alleged de facto segregation and so-called racial imbalance in two classes."

IN ANOTHER NORTH CAROLINA city, Sen. Ervin adds, "a hospital is at this moment under threat of losing federal funds because non-whites do not comprise as large a percentage of the patient load as is the percentage of the non-white population of the city." He says: "There is no allegation of discrimination or segregation in the staffing, in employment or in the assignment of patients to wards and rooms. The only allegation is that the local populace does not become ill and choose the threatened hospital according to racial quotas."

The senator also denounces the "guidelines" of the U.S. Office of Education, and says that the use of threats to secure "racial balance in pupil and teacher assignment according to percentages" cannot be justified by the language of the 1964 law.

The public as yet knows very little about the operations of the different civil rights law and only when various cases arise whereby a whole community is punished by the withdrawal of government money will public opinion be aroused. In fact, the entire controversy over "civil rights" is only in its incipient stages.

HISTORY HAS PROVED that it takes a long while for the public to be awakened to the implications of radical legislation, though on some occasions it has happened within a relatively short time.

This correspondent, who favored the Eighteenth Amendment when it was adopted, was dismayed to observe 14 years later a complete reversal of public opinion as the problem was turned back to the states. There was no question of constitutionality involved, as the Eighteenth Amendment was explicit in prohibiting the manufacture, sale and transportation of intoxicating liquor everywhere in the country. It was not the merits of the question which swayed public opinion. It was the people's almost unanimous desire to get rid of the gangsterism and crime that had resulted from efforts to enforce prohibition.

Sen. Ervin's proposed amendment, whether or not passed at this session of Congress, will form the basis for a prolonged discussion in America as to whether the present method of obtaining "racial balance" in the schools is justified.

EVEN THOUGH CONGRESS has specifically declared in the Civil Rights Act of 1964 that there is no purpose to correct racial imbalance, the federal government nevertheless is ignoring this provision of the law and threatening to withhold federal funds on the mere suspicion that possibly discrimination exists in reference either to assignment of pupils or the selection of teachers.

The Constitution forbids "cruel and unusual punishment" but, under the powers being exercised by the federal government at present, any community can be punished and education interfered with unless the concepts of "integration" devised by a governmental bureau are obeyed.

State Nominations Due*Beaver Voters Prepare For Tuesday's Primary

Midland area residents will join with Pennsylvanians across the state Tuesday to nominate party candidates ranging from governor and congressmen to judges and committeemen.

In Beaver County, voters will be selecting candidates from four legislative districts for the first time in the primary election.

A PENNSYLVANIA Supreme Court reapportionment ruling in January divided the county into four districts — 13th, 14th, 15th and 16th. Prior to this ruling, two candidates were nominated from the 1st and 2nd districts. Now, one candidate will be elected from each district.

The reapportionment set the stage for a strong battle on the Democratic ticket in the 15th District between incumbent Representatives H. Beryl Kline and Charles D. Stone and Walter Walskey. Kline is from Aliquippa and Stone and Walskey from Hopewell.

Kline and Stone are now serving terms under the old system. Walskey is trying to unseat the two incumbents.

Republican Philip T. Starr of Aliquippa is unopposed for the nomination in the 15th District.

RUNNING for the first legislative seat from the new 13th District are three Republicans and four Democrats.

F. Paul Dawson of Ohioville is opposing Robert O. Davis of Beaver and William R. Grime of Monaca for the Republican nomination.

Competing on the Democratic ticket in the 13th are George W. Gallagher of Vanport, Dennis J. Cronin and Samuel J. Gelfo, both of Monaca, and William H. Winters of Darlington Township.

In the 14th District, Chester Roser of New Brighton is unopposed on the Republican slate for the House nomination.

A three-way battle looms on the Democratic ballot among incumbent Ronald G. Lynch and Robert Wogan, both of Beaver Falls, and John F. Wright Jr. of North Sewickley Township.

There is a lone candidate for the Republican House nomination in the 16th District, James E. Carnegie of Rochester being unopposed.

Three Democrats seek the nomination in the 16th District in a battle among Albert H. Thornton of Rochester Township, George Larrick and incumbent Robert E. Hamilton both of Ambridge.

County voters also will nominate candidates to the State Senate from the 47th District, which includes all of Beaver County and a portion of Washington County, and the 25th Congressional District, which includes Beaver, Butler and Beaver counties.

Ernest P. Kline of Beaver Falls, a Democrat, the incumbent, is opposed by former Sen. John Carl Miller and Edward C. Corcoran, both Democrats, from Beaver Falls.

DEAN BRICKER, also of Beaver Falls, is the lone Republican on the ballot.

Five Republicans and two Democrats are seeking nomination to Congress.

Republican opponents are John F. Heath of Beaver Falls; John Loth of Edinburg; Lawrence County; Harry L. Miller of New Castle; Lawrence County; Ellen N. (Benny) Ritts, Renfrew R.D. 1, Butler County, and Lee E. Wagoner of Enon Valley, R.D. 1, Lawrence County.

Democrat Rep. Frank M. Clark of Bessemer, Lawrence County, is seeking re-election to Congress and is opposed by Steve Coccia of Edinburg, Lawrence County.

On the statewide ballot, county voters will be asked to nomi-

Parade Set Tonight During Rogers Fair

ROGERS — Rain and cold weather held down attendance at the opening of the Rogers Firemen's Fair Wednesday night.

A parade is scheduled tonight at 7, regardless of weather, with some 15 units expected. Robert Clark, firemen's president, said.

At a special meeting late last night, firemen received permission from Mayor Glenn Rhodes to extend the fair through Sunday, with the hours 1 to 11 p.m. Special ride rates for children will be in effect from 1 to 5 p.m.

Stockholders Okay*Norfolk-C&O Merger

ROANOKE, Va. (AP) — Stockholders of the Norfolk and Western Railway voted approval today to merge with the Chesapeake and Ohio to create a second giant rail system comparable to the recently merged Penn-Central.

Gov. William Scranton is ineligible to run again now since the office cannot be held for successive terms.

ON THE Democratic ticket seeking nomination for the office of lieutenant governor, vacated by current officeholder Shafer, who is running for governor, are James R. Kelley of Greensburg and Leonard C. Staisey of Duquesne.

Republican candidates for the lieutenant governor's post were to have been Blair F. Gunther of Pittsburgh and Walter E. Alessandroni of Philadelphia, who was killed in a plane crash.

Alessandroni's name still will appear on the ballot, according to Republican officials. If his name receives the votes necessary for renomination, officials will meet in special session to select a replacement for the general election.

Republican opponents for the office of secretary of internal affairs are John K. Tabor of Bowmansdale and J. Warren Keel of Philadelphia.

Incumbent Genevieve Blatt of Pittsburgh is unopposed on the Democratic ticket.

A four-way battle looms for the nomination of president judge of the Superior Court among Republicans G. Harold Watkins of Schuylkill County and Theodore Spaulding of Philadelphia and Democrats Clinton Budd Palmer of Easton and Juanita Kedd Stout of Philadelphia.

Watkins and Spaulding are listed on both ballots in seeking the nomination for the 10-year post.

There are 93,698 voters registered in Beaver County for the primary. Of these, 37,053 are Republicans and 55,908 Democrats.

County officials expect about 60 per cent will cast ballots.

Study Of Fossil Now Scheduled For Next Week

Ohio State University officials are not expected until next week to examine a fossil believed to be the skull of a prehistoric mastodon that was unearthed Sunday in the Lisbon area.

The skull was dug up during strip mine operations on the Delmar Sanor farm between Chambersburg and New Alexander. It was taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Cole of E. Pine St., Lisbon.

The university was notified and Dr. Raymond Baby of the fossil museum originally had been due to arrive yesterday to examine the fossil. Cole talked with Dr. Baby by phone last night, however, and was informed the examination now will take place next Wednesday afternoon.

Husbands Vs. Wives*Primary Marked By Family Races

Contests between two sets of husbands and wives and a brother and sister will mark primary election voting for Beaver County committeemen Tuesday.

State committeemen for the 47th District also will be nominated by Midland area voters.

On the statewide ballot, James Albert of Hopewell, Democrat incumbent, will oppose Albert H. Thornton of Rochester and William P. Sherlock of Beaver in his bid for re-election.

Republicans Wilbur E. Vogle of Aliquippa and Herbert A. Gilbert of Chippewa Township will battle for the post being vacated by Dr. John Colavincenzo of Rochester, who is not running for a second term.

On the county ballot, a majority of Republican contests are slated, with only a few Democratic races due.

In Midland, only two Republicans have filed as candidates, with Samuel Zupke and Phillips Vesco seeking the nomination in the 1st Precinct.

Shippingport, Hookstown and Glasgow boroughs have no contests reported for committee posts.

In Ohioville, Republicans George Gailey Jr. and Marjorie Kidder are opponents in the 1st Precinct and F. Paul Dawson and Mildred Selak in the 2nd.

No Democrats have filed in the 1st Precinct, but a race looms between Anthony Perrotto and Sophie Bassar in the 2nd Precinct.

In Industry, Republican candidates William Black and Delores Paul seek nomination in the 1st Precinct and Clyde Knight and Bessie Lee in the 2nd.

Democrats John Gregor and Veronica Benek are running in the 1st Precinct, with no one listed on the ballot in the 2nd.

In Southern Beaver County, just two townships have races for Democratic Committee nominees.

In Hanover Township, Democrats Dale I. Lance and Bertha D. Cain are unopposed for nomination in the East and West precincts, respectively.

Six Hanover Republicans are battling for committee posts — Charles Ross, Grace Dawson, William Powell, Rowena Bishop, J. W. Temple and Cora Mae Swearingen.

Democratic candidates in Potter Township are George M. Markonic and Rosemarie Sporkart.

On the Republican ballot in Potter Township are Robert Dunn and Ida Barnes.

Republican races are featured in the remaining communities.

At Georgetown, John Mackall and his sister, Harriet Mackall, are listed on the ballot.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Spence oppose each other in Frankfort Springs for the committee nomination.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaze Yoko are the candidates for committee post in Raccoon Township.

Joseph Shafer and Mrs. Charlotte Johnson seek the nomination in Greene Township.

In Independence Township, Kenneth Salsbury and Grace Campbell are seeking the committee appointment.

The buses also have trouble crossing a one-lane bridge at the bottom of the hill and must navigate a sharp left curve and right curve before coming to the intersection.

A proposed solution to the problem would be to elevate LR 0403 to the level of Route 68, calling for two-tenths of a mile straightaway.

Suchanec informed the commission that 40 feet of land has been offered by Mickey's Tavern and the Willows Motel, to help relieve the situation.

A third problem presented relates to Kelley Rd., the most-traveled secondary road in the borough. This road is slagged and oiled on occasions, but the slag and oil soon wear off because of the traffic, the mayor said. As a result, dust settles on the homes and windows and doors must be kept closed all summer.

He requested blacktopping over the entire one-and-a-half-eighth-mile stretch.

A 10-inch drain pipe near Logan School on LR 0403 has caused a problem of flooding in the cellars of homes nearby during the rain storms.

The pipe is unable to handle the flow of water, causing it to run over and into the homes of the residents and inflicting property damage, Suchanec said.

The fire department often is called to pump water across the highway in order to alleviate matters.

Suchanec reported a study has shown that a 24-inch pipe installed in that area should solve the matter.

On the same road, a gap of three-tenths of a mile of dirt road separates two blacktopped sections of the highway. Suchanec requested that this section of road be blacktopped.

A final request by Suchanec pertains to a drain pipe that is located in the Old Industry section of Route 68 where LR 243 intersects. The pipe has been clogged with stones and when it rains excess water forms on the more than two feet deep, endangering passing motorists.

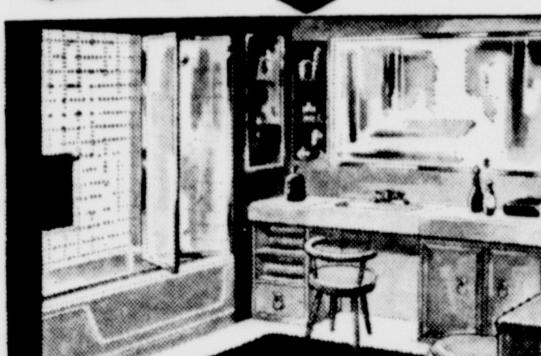

The mayor asked the state commission to have the stones removed from the pipe.

Sparks From Torch Are Blamed For Fire

Sparks from a welding torch were blamed for a fire late Wednesday morning which damaged the siding of the Pioneer Pottery building on Starkey Ln.

Workmen were welding the fire escape when the sparks ignited the siding and the blaze spread to the gutter of the brick and frame building between W. 8th and W. 9th Sts., firemen said.

Six firemen and three trucks responded to the alarm at 11:40 a.m., remaining at the scene for 46 minutes.

THIRTEEN was considered extremely lucky by Richard Wagner, the great German opera composer, we are told. Not only did his name contain 13 letters but he was born in 1813, left school at 13 and composed 13 operas.

According to English legend, a British soldier arrested for falling asleep on sentry duty one night at Windsor Castle and under sentence of death won his majesty's pardon when several persons signed an affidavit supporting the condemned man's claim that he was awake because he heard the bell of St. Paul's Cathedral in London strike 13 instead of 12 at midnight. It's said he spoke well of the number 13 the rest of his life — and lived to be 105.

If the combination, Friday the 13th, still has you worried the month of May has the only Friday the 13th in 1966. The "ominous date" doesn't come around again until January 1967. There is a second Friday the 13th next year, but it doesn't come until October.

'Odors' At Wellsville Traced To Tank Leak

Fire Chief Robert Lewis said today a leaking gasoline storage tank apparently was the source of odors from sewer openings in homes in the area of 17th and Commerce Sts. Wellsville.

The odors plagued home owners in the area for several weeks and authorities were puzzled as to the cause.

Preliminary checks failed to disclose any leaks in gasoline tanks. As a final resort, expensive mercury pressure testing was ordered and a leak was revealed in a tank at Jim's Service Station on 17th St. at Commerce.

Tests also were conducted at other area stations. Lewis thanked the Hays Oil Co., Ashland Oil Co. and Standard Oil Co. for their cooperation and efforts in having the tests made.

He pointed out the Ohio Valley Gas Co. also was quite cooperative, sending both men and equipment to the area.

Lewis said the testing and replacing of tanks is "very expensive," but the companies cooperated fully.

Monsoon rains pelted the jungle.

The Marines launched two new operations in the northern part of South Viet Nam, supported by massive artillery and air barrages.

Sixty helicopters airlifted a large Marine force 18 miles west of the coastal city of Quang Ngai as Marine pilots plastered the area before the landing. Supported by Vietnamese army units, the advancing Marines blew up an intricate Viet Cong tunnel network.

A spokesman said 47 guerrillas had been killed and 15 captured so far while American losses were light.

Near the old imperial capital of Hue, units of the 3rd Marine Division were in their third day of Operation Wayne and reported five Viet Cong killed. Again Marine casualties were reported light.

The U.S. Air Force said it killed "possibly 40 or more" Viet Cong in 350 combat strikes over South Viet Nam.

Alessandroni Vote Urged In Pennsylvania

HARRISBURG (AP) — State Republican leaders are urging GOP voters to cast their ballots for the late Walter E. Alessandroni in Tuesday's primary election.

Craig Truax, Republican state chairman, released a statement Wednesday, pledging that if Alessandroni is elected, the state committee will meet to designate a new candidate.

Republican party leaders all throughout the state unanimously approved this course of action, they said.

Alessandroni, state attorney general, was killed in a plane crash Sunday along with his wife and two other persons. He was the running mate of Lt. Gov. Raymond P. Shafer, a candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination.

According to the state election code, Alessandroni's name must remain on the ballot.

In urging voters to cast their ballots for Alessandroni, the GOP leaders said it would be a "vote of confidence in the team of which he was a part. It will be a vote to continue the tradition of public service he represented."

Drive Pushed On Sunnyside 2nd Charge In Robbery Case

The Sunnyside Improvement Association, meeting Wednesday night at the Ohio Valley Gas Co., reported that improvement already has been noted in the area as a result of a cleanup campaign which it launched in early May.

James H. Grafton, chairman, presided at the session, which also was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dyer, Mrs. Carl Ward, Mrs. Mike Winters, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dales, Mrs. Florence Moore, Mrs. Betty Spencer, Edgar Morgan and Ben Weber, secretary.

Mrs. Dales reported on a door-to-door canvass made by the women's committee, seeking cooperation in the campaign and explaining its objectives. Mrs. Winters and Mrs. Ward, who aided in the canvass, thanked the residents for the way in which they were received.

The women's committee said the neighborhood has made "a fine start" toward its objectives and that "very noticeable" improvements already have been noted.

Grafton reported he has received telephone calls from residents of other sections of the city, asking details on the Sunnyside project. He said any future meetings of the Sunnyside committee will be open to interested residents and city officials.

The group appointed a committee to confer with municipal officials Saturday noon on the condition of nine tracts of city-owned property and on the need for a site for a Sunnyside area playground. The committee is comprised of Grafton, Mrs. Dales, Mrs. Weber and Mrs. Winters.

The group discussed two proposed playground sites, but decided neither was satisfactory. It extended a vote of thanks to The Review and WOHL for news coverage of its activities. Grafton thanked the women's committee for its work.

The women's committee will meet May 25 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Dyer of 1017 Florence St. The next general meeting will be June 1 at 7:30 p.m. at the gas company building.

Intruder Obtains $50 From 3 Coin Devices

An intruder obtained about $50 in rifling three coin-operated machines early today at the Buckeye Club, 616 Dresden Ave., police reported.

The change was taken from a music machine, a bumper pool game and a bowling machine, but the burglar was unable to force open the coin box of a cigarette vending device, officers said.

The women were protesting the movement of trucks hauling fly ash from a West Penn Power Co. plant to a dump, police said. They said nine trucks were blocked.

The women were released on their own recognition and ordered to appear at a hearing Monday.

Man Facing Hearing In Death Of Youngster

CLEVELAND (AP) — The stepfather of a boy who died Wednesday following a beating was to appear in municipal court today for a preliminary hearing on a charge of second-degree murder.

Lee E. Barrett, 32, Cleveland, is charged in the death of Paul Dawson, son of Mrs. Willie Barrett.

Man To Face Trial Opened On New Light

Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey flipped a switch about 9 this morning to begin trial of a new walk light on the traffic signal at 5th and Market Streets.

In a totally unexpected development, the three traffic signals on the circuit promptly went black—the lights at 5th and Market and its companions on Market at 4th and 3rd Streets.

Nonplussed, the director opened the switch again and the three traffic signals went back into operation—but no walk signal.

Galloway also has been charged with safecracking as a result of the same robbery. Galloway told the court he did not have legal counsel when he appeared yesterday for arraignment. The court appointed an attorney and rescheduled the arraignment for Friday at 2 p.m.

Bond on each charge was set at $2,500. Galloway is being held in County Jail at Lisbon in lieu of bond.

He is charged with the Jan. 2 robbery of the 12th St. Market on Main St., Wellsville. Two men were involved and escaped with $100.

The walk light was functioning properly within a short time.

It will switch on once in each red-green-amber cycle of the traffic light to allow the right-of-way to pedestrians to cross in any direction. Meanwhile, traffic will be halted on both Market St. and 5th St.

The new light is intended as a trial to help Council and city officials determine if similar signals should be installed at other busy downtown intersections. It will operate Monday through Saturday—from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. each day except Thursday, when it will function from 9 to 9.

Tag Day Set Saturday For Nurses' Fund

A tag day will be held Saturday by Women of Moose 642 to raise funds for the nursing scholarship which the chapter provides at City Hospital.

The solicitation will be conducted from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the downtown business district. Mrs. Charlene Starlin, chairman, said.

Roy Allen of Columbian, who won the Democratic nomination for state representative, said he spent $149.62.

Mrs. Isabelle Chaney of near Cadiz, elected Republican state central committeewoman from the 18th Congressional District, said she spent $109. Don R. Gosney, returned as district committeeman, reported no expenses.

Robert M. Bell of Steubenville, returned as GOP state central committeeman, said he spent $183.40. Miss Esther Pinkley of Bellaire, given a new term as district Democratic committeewoman, reported no expenses.

County commissioners reported they spent nothing in support of a two-tenths mill mental health levy, which was rejected by voters.

June 17 at 4 p.m. is the deadline for the reports, which are required of all candidates as well as from committees that supported or opposed any candidate or issue.

Suspect Held To Court In Gas Station Stickup

Donald G. Roberts of Beaver Falls was returned to the Beaver County Jail in Beaver after waiving preliminary hearing Wednesday night at Midland on an armed robbery charge in connection with a $35 holdup Sunday night at a Midland area service station.

Roberts is accused of a holdup of the Highway Oil Co. on Route 68 in which Arnold R. Martin, 17, of Ohioville, the attendant, was menaced by a lone robber. The Beaver Falls man was taken into custody shortly afterward by Patrolman Chester Cook of Midland.

He was arraigned last night before Justice of the Peace Stephen Germusa at the Midland Borough Building, then returned to the County Jail by Police Chief Bernard Zlatovich of Ohioville. The charge will be investigated by the Beaver County Grand Jury.

Grosses $600, $700

Bloodhounds Used To Hunt Abducted Girl

HUNTINGDON, Pa. (AP) — State policemen using bloodhounds worked their way back and forth through heavy woods today searching for a 17-year-old school girl abducted by a man armed with a lever-action rifle.

The police said the man matched the description of a "mystery sniper" who has prowled this area for two years. The sniper has wounded two people and shot several others.

The girl, Peggy Ann Bradnick, of Shade Gap R.D. 1 accompanied by three younger sisters and two brothers, was on her way home about 4:30 p.m. Wednesday, police said, when the man jumped out of the woods, seized her and dragged her away. She was wearing a red jumper, white blouse and suede shoes.

Police said there was some contradiction in the description given by the younger children, but the man was believed to be wearing either sunglasses, or sunglasses and a mask.

A helicopter was used to search the area until darkness set in, police said, then foot patrols using bloodhounds took over the search.

Troopers from as far away as Harrisburg and Bedford were called in to assist in the search.

Wednesday's interrogation related to the purchase of wiretapping equipment, which the Auditor General's department says was made by Stanton in Miami, Fla., in October, 1963.

One of the charges against Stanton is that he purchased "certain equipment" from a Miami, Fla., firm in violation of the state administrative code which requires competitive bidding handled by the state property and supplies department.

Detective Angelo Caracci, who instituted the long sequence of events in the wiretapping controversy, told a special House Investigating Committee last February that he violated a 1957 state law by wiretapping on orders from superiors. Stanton was chief of the detective bureau at the time.

Caracci also faces a court-martial as a result of his testimony.

Bettis Again Stresses Sex Offender Problem

Pointing out that seven more cases were reported to his office last week, J. Warren Bettis, Columbiana County prosecuting attorney, continues to express alarm over sex offenders.

His latest comment on the situation came Wednesday night during a screening of the film "The Child Molester" before 60 parents and children at a meeting arranged by the Calcutta Volunteer Fire Department.

He said that since the first screening in June 1965, more than 20,000 have seen the film.

Declaring that there are 175 known offenders in the county, Bettis again called for a change in the law so that sex deviates would be sent to mental institutions instead of prison upon conviction.

He explained that under the present system molesters are placed in prison, only to be released in many cases in a short time free to renew their activities. They would obtain psychiatric treatment at a mental institution.

A question-and-answer period followed his presentation.

He reminded that arrangements for showing of the film may be made by contacting him at the Courthouse in Lisbon.

Bettis, turning to the lighter side, also related some of his experiences as a volunteer firefighter in Columbus.

The tests followed Tuesday's flawless practice of the dual countdown involving Atlas-Agena and Titan 2 rockets.

The Atlas is to boost the Agena into orbit at 11 a.m. EDT, Tuesday. The Titan 2 is to follow 39 minutes later, to start Gemini 9 in pursuit.

Man To Mark 91st Birthday At Wellsville

Harry Hammond of 1736 Clark Ave., Wellsville, will observe his 91st birthday anniversary Saturday.

The former grocery operator and justice of the peace is in good health, but has had to give up the walks he enjoyed so much throughout the community. He now is content to be "chauffeured" by his wife, the former Verna Stout, 83, of Irondale, whom he married 55 years ago.

He keeps abreast of the times by constant reading. His strawberry plants are his hobby.

Mr. Hammond has been active in Masonic activities over the years, holding membership in the Blue Lodge, the Royal Arch Chapter, the Council and Knights Templar. He became a Master Mason in 1910 and a 32nd-degree Mason in 1920 and has been a familiar figure at Masonic meetings.

He has served as a deacon in the First Christian Church for 30 years.

The Hammonds have a daughter, Mrs. May Hammond Walton; a grandson, Larry (Zeke) Walton of East Liverpool, and a great-grandson. He has two sisters, Miss Olive Hammond of Wellsville and Mrs. Lillian Seaman of Michigan, and a brother, Earl Hammond, also of Michigan.

Mr. Hammond still owns the farm on which is located the log cabin in which he was born May 14, 1875, in Madison Township.

A quiet family observance is planned Sunday in recognition of the birthday.

Brush Will Speak At Mount Union

ALLIANCE — More than 100 students and guests will attend tonight's Mt. Union College Communications Committee dinner and address at the Hoover-Price Campus Center.

Guest speaker for the second annual affair is Thomas S. Brush, an executive of Brush-Moore Newspapers, Inc., and a trustee of the college.

He will discuss "Newspaper Group Ownership: The Responsibility and the Challenge."

Students attending the event represent members of the staffs of "Calliope" (literary annual), "Dynamo" (newspaper), "Unonian" (yearbook) and WRMU (radio station).

Dr. Paul Chapman, professor of English and Communications Committee chairman, will preside for the dinner program, while President Carl C. Brady will preside for the address program.

Mr. Brush and his family have had a distinguished association with Mt. Union.

His great-grandparents, James Alpheus and Amelia (McCall) Brush, were outstanding members of the early faculty under founder and first president Orville Nelson Harshorn who married James' sister, Amanda Brush.

His grandfather, Louis H. Brush, was a Mt. Union student who became treasurer and trustee of his alma mater.

Officers were named when the newly-elected trustees of the East Liverpool area chapter of Junior Achievement, Inc., held a luncheon meeting Wednesday at the Country Club.

Selected were Joseph D. Coons, president; Mike Turk, vice president; Nelson Hagerty, treasurer, and Edward Robbins, secretary.

The board voted to apply for a franchise with the national organization, which operates the educational program in 400 business centers across the nation. It is active in 45 states and six provinces of Canada, as well as six other nations.

As of the meeting yesterday, the trustees reported pledges and contributions of $2,400, about 60 per cent of the first year's budget. Hagerty was named chairman of the Finance Committee and will coordinate fund-raising activities for the balance of the campaign.

A director will be employed by the chapter to supervise the club.

Scranton To Sign Measure Boosting Penalty For Rape

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton planned to sign into law today a bill increasing the maximum penalty for rape to life imprisonment.

Final legislative action was completed Wednesday when the Senate concurred in House amendments. Passage of the measure had been assured on Monday, however, when legislative leaders of both parties reached a bipartisan accord.

The bill raises the present maximum sentence from 15 years to life and establishes for the first time a 15 year minimum sentence for any rapist who inflicts serious bodily injury.

Sen. Thomas P. McCreehan, D.-Philadelphia, said the bill was "an excellent example of democracy at work."

Five Are Invited To Gas Firm Fete

Five East Liverpool residents have been invited to attend the Columbia Gas System Quarter Century Club banquet May 25 at the Fort Steuben Hotel in Steubenville.

They are: Don R. Bontempi,

427 Grant St.; Samuel Hicks, Box 303 Bloomfield; and Donald C. Miller, 745 St. Clair Ave., active Ohio Valley Gas Co. employees, and Joseph B. Reese, Fredericktown St., and Mrs. Florence F. Howell, 823 Avondale St., retired.

Ohio Valley is part of the Columbia Gas System.

One of every five Ohio Valley Gas Co. employees has 25 or more years service.

"The fine performance of these long-time employees over the years has been a major contribution to the success and good reputation enjoyed by our company. We are proud to honor them for their service and loyalty," Allan W. Lundstrum, chairman of the board and president of Ohio Valley Gas Co., said in discussing plans for the banquet.

In other legislative action, a $75 million bonus school subsidy bill was introduced in the House by Rep. James J. A. Gallagher, D-Bucks, as a substitute for the $50 million advance subsidy bill proposed by the Scranton administration and passed by the Senate.

Gallagher said he was sure there would be a large enough budget surplus this year to finance the bonus.

School districts received a $34 million bonus from the legislature in the current fiscal year.

The House adopted a resolution urging the state Highways Department to facilitate the building of a proposed Donora-Monessen bridge leading to Interstate Route 70.

The resolution noted that the Donora operation of U. S. Steel Corp. was being phased out, leaving a large amount of industrial acreage available for development.

It was sponsored by Reps. Paul Suchko and C. L. Schmitt, both Westmoreland County Democrats.

Defense attorneys indicated they would appeal on grounds their clients are in poor health.

PANAMA (AP) — What do President Johnson, Pope Paul VI and Francis Cardinal Spellman all have in common?

On a Panamanian stamp it's their hair color: auburn. That's the way it came out on a stamp issued by Panama April 4 as part of a series commemorating the Pope's visit to the United Nations last October.

Postmaster General David Amado said the original stamp drawing showed the hair of the three leaders in their natural color, but it apparently turned auburn when different color inks were superimposed during printing.

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Lynda Koolish, 19, a blonde coed at the University of California, is on probation because she booted an American Nazi in the pants.

Miss Koolish, a freshman, was given 30 days probation

Wednesday by Municipal Judge Floyd Talbot on a charge of battery.

She was arrested after interrupting a rally last month by three uniformed members of the American Nazi party by kicking one of them.

QUITMAN, Ga. (AP) — "Back when hogs were bringing 15 cents, you wouldn't have done such a thing," said Judge George R. Lilly.

The judge took note of the rising cost of pork as he sentenced four men to jail after they had been convicted of stealing hogs.

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP) — Critic and author Edmund Wilson has received the Emerson-Thoreau award of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

The award was presented to Wilson at a dinner Wednesday night at which the academy inducted 150 new fellows.

The award, a medal and $1,000, was presented for the first time in 1958 to the late poet Robert Frost.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — It took 39 years, but the Joseph Cavolos are finally divorced.

Mrs. Cavolo filed for divorce April 26, 1927. Although the case was continued to 1928 no further action was taken until Cavolo, now 65, filed an answer and cross-bill last January and was awarded a divorce.

Mrs. Cavolo's whereabouts are unknown.

Man Killed As Car Spins Out Of Control

CHARLEROI, Pa. (AP) — A car spun out of control and rammed a concrete wall Wednesday night one mile west of Charleroi on Route 70, killing Edward R. Edwards, 24, of Canonsburg.

Police said his auto hit the rear of a car ahead of him, then swerved off the right side of the highway.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: My husband and I are the proud parents of two beautiful children—a little boy 3 years old and a 10-month-old baby girl. We adopted these youngsters through the Tennessee Department of Welfare.

Not a week goes by that someone doesn't say, "It certainly is wonderful of you to take those poor little children into your home. God will bless you some day for your kindness."

The remarks are invariably made in the presence of the children who are too young to understand but one day soon they will.

How can we make people realize that these children have made our house a home and that God already has blessed us a hundredfold?

Please provide us with an answer that will assure our children that we love them and we did not take them into our home because we felt sorry for them. Thank you.—MRS. FURIOSA.

Dear Mrs.: Children are given the warm feeling that they are wanted and loved by the way they are treated and not by listening to their parents talk to friends.

I do feel that you should respond to your ignorant acquaintances, however, not to reassure your children, but to educate the clods. Tell them—as you told me in your letter—that God already has blessed you, and that the children have enriched your lives beyond your ability to describe it.

Tipping Tip

Dear Ann: My letter is to let you know I'm with you ALL the way on this tipping nonsense.

You said, "People who do not believe in tipping should (1) park their own cars on the street—if they can find a space, (2) eat at home, (3) carry their coats and hats around all evening.

If enough of us who are against tipping will take your advice, Ann, the restaurant, hotel and tavern owners, the parking lot tycoons and others surely will feel the pinch and do something drastic—like pay their employees a living wage. —TIRED OF BEING BLEED.

Dear Tired: You make an excellent point, but your solution would not ease the burden of the customer. The increased cost of doing business would be passed right along to you and to me in the form of higher prices. As for me, I'd prefer higher prices and no tipping but the prospects of getting it are mighty slim.

To Three Daughters

Dear Ann: The confidants at the foot of your column always have intrigued me. You once explained that those messages are abbreviated because you have been asked not to print the letter—just the advice.

Although some of the confidants are fairly obscure I often can guess what the letter was about.

Now I wonder if you would do something I don't believe you've ever done before. Will you let a reader supply a confidential? I'm aching to say something to the three daughters who want their 70-year-old mother to move in with one of them. They are afraid if mama goes to an old folks' home the neighbors might think the daughters didn't want to take her in.

Here is my Confidential:

TO THREE DAUGHTERS:

Let your mother go where she will be comfortable. You have given her so little of your time and attention through the years that she knows how you really feel. I hope your mother leaves her money to charity or to some old man she met last week. —ALSO INDEPENDENT AND UNWANTED.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Mrs. June Laughlin will serve as president of the Calcutta Mothers Club during the 1966-67 school term. She will succeed Mrs. Carol Hoppel.

She was elected, along with other officers, during the final meeting Wednesday afternoon in the all-purpose room of the school. Assisting her will be Mrs. JoAnn Bennett, vice president; Mrs. Eileen Cartwright, secretary, and Mrs. Eleanor Jolley, treasurer.

The guest speaker was Stan-dish Miller, superintendent of the Beaver Local Elementary School, who discussed the topic, "The School System." He was introduced by Mrs. Kate Bark-er, program chairman.

In explaining the subject, Supt. Miller used three categories—"Where Have We Been?" "What Have We Done?" and "Where Are We Going?" A question-and-answer period followed.

Mrs. Hoppel thanked the members who assisted with the bowling banquet held May 5. The secretary's report was given by Mrs. Barbara Dray and the treasurer's report by Mrs. Laughlin.

It was announced that the Calcutta Parent-Teacher Association meeting will be held Monday at 7:30 p.m.

Out Of The Air

By RICHARD K. DOAN

Gallery Of Villains

Batman and Robin were climbing a wall the other night. They came to a window. And who should be leaning out of it, saying hello there, but Jerry Lewis.

How come? Well, it seems one of Lewis' children taunted him with, "If you're such a big shot, why can't you get on 'Batman'?"

Or words to that effect. The comedian took his plight to producer Harry Horowitz and Horowitz fixed him up.

IT ALSO GAVE Horowitz an idea: since "Batman" has become so "in," with many big names wanting to play villains in the series, why not cast some of them in quickie "cameo" roles like Jerry Lewis' appearance?

It used to be The Thing on Gene Barry's "Amos Burke" series. Before that, the Hollywood crowd liked to drop around to Soupy Sales' show, before he moved East, and get a pie in the face.

Horowitz quietly is pursuing the "cameo" idea, collecting a list of celebrities who might be invited to do walk-ons. The producer, however, wants to keep these appearances as little surprises the viewer will look for.

MEANWHILE, next season's villain list is being filled out. Liberace, the word is, wants to do a two-part episode in which he would portray a character named Fingers who detonates bombs by striking a chord on the piano.

Tallulah Bankhead is being "mentioned" as a possible villainess, as is Bette Davis, James Mason and Robert Morley are candidates for villains.

At least half of next year's episodes will feature new villains, according to present plans. Return appearances are scheduled for such guest stars as Frank Gorshin, Burgess Meredith, Julie Newmar and Cesar Romero, if they are available.

PRODUCTION of shows for the fall will get started the second week in June. Adam West and the rest of the cast will get little rest in the meantime: a Batman movie is to be cranked out hurriedly to capitalize on the show's popularity at the box office.

The TV series goes into repeats this week. Wednesday's episode was the one that was interrupted by the Gemini-shot that - failed bulletins, arousing howls from Batman fans.

Seventeen episodes will be rerun between now and mid-September when the new season opens. ABC officials have their fingers crossed. Nobody knows for sure how much of the audience will be around for the repeats.

The next meeting will be Monday at 7 p.m. at the Township Hall.

Girl, 17, Hurt In Auto Crash On Lisbon St

A 17-year-old girl was injured when the car in which she was riding struck the rear of a halted auto Wednesday at 4:03 p.m. on Lisbon St. about 75 feet north of Belmar Ave., police reported.

Miss Pat Davis, daughter of Clinton Davis of Lisbon St., was released after treatment at City Hospital for a bump on the forehead and the right knee, officers said.

Besides this, it is said, Ford would sponsor "Russian Sports Revolution," booked for May 22, and repeats in June of two NBC documentaries, "Giant Canyon" and "The Lewis & Clark Expedition." The "Kennedy" hours are scheduled May 29 and June 5.

Ford's major advertising vehicle in TV has been ABC's "The FBI." The auto maker has not previously been an underwriter of TV public affairs—except, of course, in a most indirect way through the Ford Foundation.

IN SHORT . . .

ABC has the culture bug, too. The network is having its San Francisco TV station film a special for next season featuring a performance by the San Francisco Ballet Company of Tschaikowski's "Beauty and the Beast." Hayley Mills, the young English actress, will make her American TV debut on the program as its host and narrator.

The success of this season's "A Charlie Brown Christmas" on CBS has led to talk of four such "Peanuts" specials next year . . .

Road Oiling Set In St. Clair Twp.

A road oiling program, which will operate the same as in past years, has been set up by the St. Clair Township trustees.

A meeting will be arranged soon between property owners, who pay for the oil, and the supplier, trustees said.

Trustees were informed at their meeting Monday night at Township Hall in Calcutta that Grimms Bridge Rd. is continuing to slip. It hasn't been ascertained whether the slipping is the result of the wet weather or from an abandoned mine tunnel under the road, they said.

The township's road grader remains deadlined while "major repairs" are made at a Sainville garage.

Trustees authorized the purchase of road patching material and granted a permit to Anthony Hoods to open Hollywood Dr. for installation of a water line. Bills totaling $2,745 were paid. David Dray, president, presided.

The next meeting will be Monday at 7 p.m. at the Township Hall.

Bragan's Pep Talk Helps

Giants Stretch Win Streak To 10

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Manager Bobby Bragan walked out of a clubhouse meeting and proudly proclaimed, "We resolved to start winning." And the Atlanta Braves did just that.

But then it's easy when you have Hank Aaron on your side.

Aaron hammered two home runs and drove in five runs as Atlanta ended a losing string of five games with an 8-1 victory over Cincinnati Wednesday night.

Bragan called a 20-minute meeting before the game.

"I told them the pitchers are better than they have been. Pitching and the hitters are better than they have been hitting," the Atlanta manager said.

"And I told them the manager is better than he has been managing."

So Tony Cloninger took care of the pitching. Aaron handled the hitting and Bragan hardly had to do any managing as Atlanta rocked the Reds.

Aaron's two home runs were his 10th and 11th this season and upped his career total to 409, 10th on the all-time list.

He tagged his first of the night over the left field wall with a man on in the first and then reached almost the same spot with two on in the fifth.

Both of Aaron's shots and one by Joe Torre came off Sammy Ellis, who lost for the fifth time in six games.

Elsewhere in the National League, Houston downed New York 6-4. San Francisco stretched its winning streak to 10 games with a 6-1 victory over Pittsburgh and Los Angeles blanked Philadelphia 5-0.

Barry Latman pitched 6 1/3 innings of two-hit relief and Rusty Staub and Jim Wynn hammered home runs that lifted Houston past the Mets. Wynn's three-run shot in the fifth put the Astros on top to stay.

Gaylor Perry won his fifth straight with a six-hitter and Willie Mays hit his 514th career homer for the Giants.

Mays' two-run homer in the ninth completed San Francisco's scoring after a pair of doubles by Tom Haller helped build the Giants' early lead.

Don Sutton pitched Los Angeles' first shutout of the season and contributed three hits to the Dodger attack against the Phils.

The rookie right-hander struck out eight, walked only one and drove in the only run he needed in the third inning when he singled after catcher John Roseboro had doubled.

Ron Fairly drove in two runs with a sixth inning single and Sutton contributed his third hit to another two-run Dodger rally in the ninth.

Brown Has Hopes Of Playing Soon

CLEVELAND (AP) — Shortstop Larry Brown, who was injured in a collision with a teammate a week ago, says he hopes to be playing with the Cleveland Indians again within a month.

Brown was transferred from the intensive care unit at Lenox Hill Hospital in New York Wednesday. He is to be brought to Cleveland Saturday for further treatment at Shaker Medical Center.

Brown suffered a fractured skull and other injuries when he collided with outfielder Leon Wagner while the two were chasing a fly ball in Yankee Stadium May 4.

He expressed confidence of being able to return to action within a month in an exclusive interview Wednesday by Barney Kremenco, veteran New York baseball writer, which was copyrighted by The Cleveland Plain Dealer.

"I asked the doctor (Dr. Sidney Gaynor) about it this morning," he said. "And while he didn't say yes, he didn't say no either. He said it might take a little longer or maybe a little less."

"The way I feel right now, I think I'll make it. I know I'll be in there before the season is over."

In addition to the skull fracture, Brown suffered broken bones under each of his eyes as well as a broken nose.

Surgery is necessary on the bones around the eyes, which have affected the muscles in these areas. Brown said he can open his left eye, but he has no control in moving it.

The eye operation probably will take place at the Shaker Medical Center.

WHOLE-HOUSE GAS AIR CONDITIONING
COSTS $14.00 A MONTH TO OWN!

Probably the reason some people are still going for those roaring wind tunnels called window air conditioners is that they haven't heard how little it costs to own whole-house Gas air conditioning.

Hear it now: Fourteen dollars a month—or less—not only buys a powerful three-ton capacity Gas central air conditioning system, but installs it, too. And there's no down payment.

Does the low price surprise you? It shouldn't, when you consider that a compact Gas air conditioner attaches to your present Gas furnace, converting it instantly into a matched heating-cooling team. Gas air conditioning is the quietest, longest-lived and most trouble-free of any central home cooling system. And economical Gas can cool your whole house, every room, for a fraction of the cost of keeping a flock of noisy one-room air conditioners in electricity.

Send in the no-obligation coupon today, and enjoy summer with cool, healthful air in every room in your home.

THINK OF ALL THE THINGS YOU CAN DO WITH THE MONEY YOU SAVE. GAS MAKES THE BIG DIFFERENCE.

Youth Sentenced To 3 Life Terms In Slaying Of 3

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Paul Eric Krueger, who registered in a rooming house under the name Vic Solo a few hours after he shot three fishermen for no apparent reason, was sentenced to three concurrent life terms in prison Wednesday.

The California youth's surprise pleas of guilty and immediate sentencing closed a case which Dist. Atty. Sam Jones of Corpus Christi, called "the most heinous crime ever committed in the history of the Texas Gulf Coast."

Krueger, the 18-year-old son of a San Clemente, Calif., industrialist, showed no emotion as sheriff's deputies hustled him from the courtroom. The defense waived all appeal and he will be sent quickly to the state prison at Huntsville.

He was indicted for the April 12, 1965, slayings of John D. Fox, 38; Noel D. Little, 51, and Van D. Carson, 40, all from Corpus Christi. They were shot while fishing off a pier 30 miles south of Corpus Christi.

Heads were severed upon the return of a search warrant, and Aristed will forward copies of the preceding documents as named in the preceding paragraph SHIPPING CHARGE COLLECT.

Deposit will be refunded upon the return of the original documents.

QUESTION: Was there a real Uncle Sam?

ANSWER: Experts differ about how this nickname originated; its origin seems to be in doubt. According to one story, which we illustrate in our top picture, it all began during the War of 1812. An army inspector of meat, Sam Wilson, had been stamping barrels of meat "U.S.", meaning they had been approved by the U.S. government. Someone connected the initial with the name Sam Wilson, and people began speaking of Uncle Sam. A newspaper in Troy, N.Y., used this nickname in 1913. Soon the name spread widely.

Whether or not Sam Wilson was the original Uncle Sam, it is a fact that this nickname for the U.S. government was in use by 1913 and was soon picked up by American cartoonists (and others abroad) as a symbol to express the spirit of the new country. As they showed him, Sam was a big, rangy looking fellow. In early cartoons, he was quite young looking, but soon the beard and bushy grey hair appeared. Each cartoonist used his own ideas as to which part of his costume should have stars and which part stripes. Perhaps Uncle Sam's popularity as a symbol for America was that while he had a big, backwoods kind of figure, his clothes, modish for that period, showed that he was coming up in the world.

Ten years ago — President Eisenhower underwent a complete physical examination at Walter Reed Hospital and doctors found that the heart damage he'd suffered in his 1955 heart attack was healed.

Five years ago — Leaders of the Congo made public the outline of a proposed constitution for a federal republic.

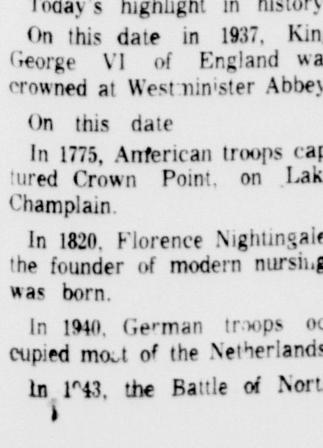

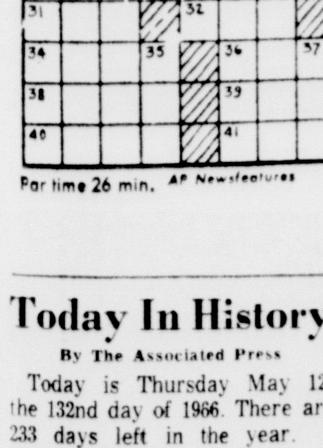

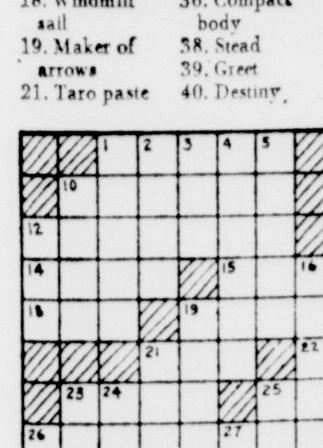

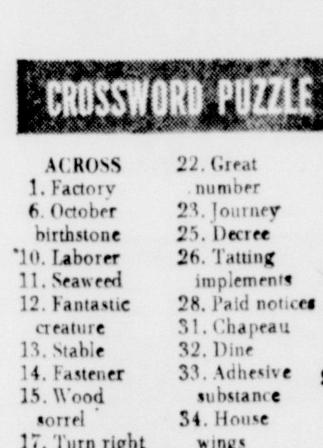

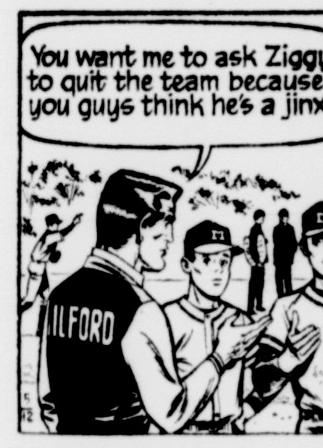

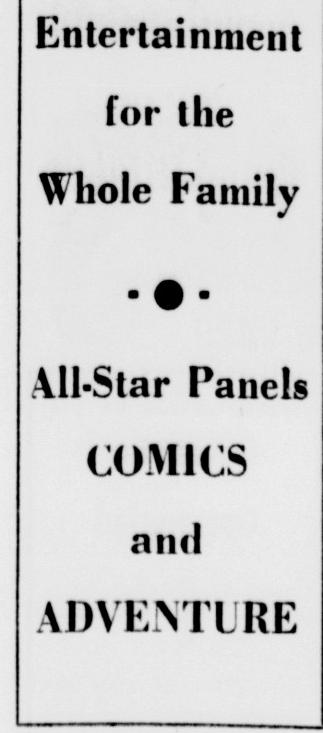

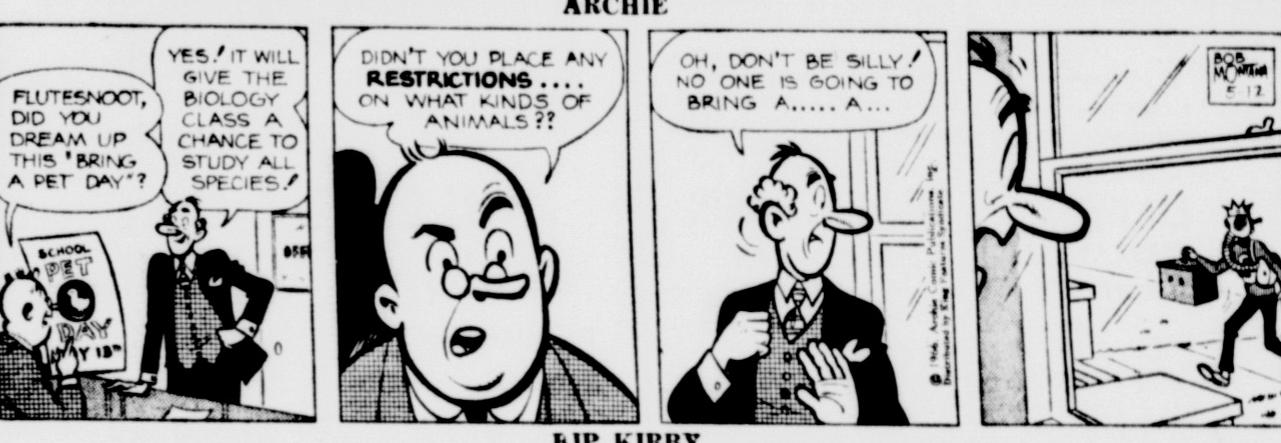

One year ago — West Germany and Israel announced the establishment of diplomatic relations.
